Excerpt: .material for curious investigation and fresh criticism at the hands of many generations yet to come. On the historical side I have a very active sympathy with your Society, as the possessor of certain ancient records connected with our county, which have been the subject of investigation by members of this Society on two occasions, when my father had the pleasure of welcoming them at Longleat, and I find in the volumes of your Prnceea z n qs a very interesting paper dealing with the contents of the Longleat Libraries, read before your Society on the occasion of one of those visits by my old and valued friend, the late Canon Jackson, whose reputation as an antiquary is the cherished memory of at least two counties. These reflections have led me to adopt as the topic of my Presidential Address a brief and necessarily...
