An entry made there can never be erased, or changed in any way. A deed once done can never be undone. It matters not how thoughtlessly or how impulsively we may have acted. The deed done in a moment of anger, the hasty word, the unreflecting thought, are all recorded as exactly and faithfully as the light prints a face on the photographic plate; and the record is there to stand unchanged forever. Cain could not call back the spirit to the breast of his murdered brother. Ahab could not restore life to the bruised and broken body of Naboth. Judas could not change the fact that he had sold his Lord for thirty pieces of silver. Pilate could not clear his record of the infamy of his having condemned an innocent and holy man to a terrible death. Nor could...
