TRANSPLANT (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this gripping, fast-paced thriller, Dr. Robert Doc Lamb, trauma surgeon, former Army Special Forces Intelligence officer and CIA covert operative, swore he would never go back to his former life-not after his wife, Grace, was killed in a car bomb meant for him. But when Dr. Greg Johnson-the Broward County medical examiner, and an old friend-asks him to assist with the evaluation of a mysterious John Doe found floating in the Intracoastal Waterway, he begins to be pulled back into the world he had deliberately left behind. Identifying the John Doe sets a complicated investigation into motion, one that seems, implausably, to lead from a topless dancer, to a local drug house stocked with black market anesthesia drugs which appear to have originated in the Middle East, and then to a medevac jet leaving the country on the night of the victim s death. It also becomes clear the victim is one of many. The trail eventually leads Lamb to a private island in the southern Bahamas, to a stem cell research institute on a remote Caribbean island, and eventually to a hospital in the tribal highlands of Yemen. When he finds the clues are leading him out of the country, Doc turns to Isaiah Jefferson, his old CIA partner, confidante and friend for help. Doc had sworn he would never become involved with the CIA again, but as he probes deeper and deeper into the case-and as the dead man s wife pleads with him to find out why her husband was killed, and who killed him-he feels his own overwhelming grief and guilt over his wife s death driving him further and further into dangerous territory. In the process of...
