Elj Publications, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.With tenderness and clarity, C. Malcolm Ellsworth documents what lies above and below the surface. Using the Midwestern landscape, she fearlessly navigates a topography of love, violence, regret, and forgiveness - and unearths whatever it is that seeks to be revealed. In life, we live with what has passed. In art, we make the past the present. We make it a gift. In Artesian Well, C. Malcolm Ellsworth presents us with love, lost love, regret, hope and strength. Farm girls write on rocks / with rocks, write on wood / with ashes. Like the poet, they use the material to make the material. In Chocolate Cake, Ellsworth bakes up a domestic sheet. By the end, the poem, like the cake, splits, just a little / in the middle, and feels springy like flesh, / and a toothpick stuck in the center / comes out clean. These artful poems, fleshed with the particulars of ordinary life, come out clean. - Thomas Fox Averill, author of rode and Secrets of the Tsil Cafe The poems in Artesian Well wander with a dark elegance through a grainy rural terrain, where the burden of memory and a collective grief are characteristics of Midwestern legacy. This is a place where girls shoot guns and ride horses bareback, where recipes are passed down for generations, where Sometimes in winter / they throw the dead away. Ellsworth reveals with subtlety the ways our memories can play tricks on us and the illusion of a comforting nostalgia. This is a book about family and the bonds between sisters and mothers and daughters, about forgiveness and aging, about how to learn that the only way home / is...
