Butler, of Kentucky: In Committee of the Whole, in Reply to Mr. Biddle and Mr. Hunt, Upon the Appropriation for Suppressing Hostilities in Florida, Delivered in the House of Representatives, June 11, 1840 Mr. Chairman: That I have not occupied this floor sooner, is an evidence of the reluctance I feel, in occupying it at all; a reluctance which is greatly increased from the reflection that the session is drawing to a close, and that I can hope to say nothing likely to compensate the country for the time I shall necessarily occupy. This consideration would certainly induce me to decline saying any thing on the present, occasion, were I not satisfied, that the session is to end, as it began, in speech-making. Be this as it may, sir, I have now undergone what all will admit to be a reasonable noviciate in silence, and intend as brief a discussion of the Florida war question as I may find convenient. That this war is beginning to excite a deep, and a...
