Richard Strange . musician; composer; nightclub host; actor; writer and adventurer . was born in January 1951 . Since his proto-punk rock band The Doctors of Madness was first unleashed on the public in 1975, he has been a Zelig-like figure whose presence has been felt in every corner of London's cultural life . He founded the hugely influential mixed-media club Cabaret Futura in 1980, and has made films with Tim Burton, Neil Jordan and Martin Scorsese . He wrote music for contemporary dance companies in the eighties and was European editor of the avant-garde Artline magazine . He toured the world in a Russian Hamlet and appeared in several episodes of the highly successful Men Behaving Badly . For two seemingly endless years he played a snooty English butler on an appalling German TV show . His rambustious and unpredictable life has led him to cross paths with characters as diverse as Johnny Rotten and Princess Diana, John Cleese, Grace Jones and Damien Hirst . He declares: "My generation feels like we invented everything in the world. Sex, the protest movement, environmentalism, feminism, the media and drugs . In Fact - we probably did " . For Strange, no cow is too sacred to be kicked . ' Strange : Punks and Drunks and Flicks and Kicks . The Memoirs of Richard Strange ' irreverently and hilariously chronicles how the...
