

It`s Never Too Late: to achieve financial security

By Peter Cerexhe

Allen & Unwin/Viva Books, 2007. Softcover. Condition: New. First edition. An inspirational guide to financial planning for the over 40s, aimed especially at those who need to catch up after a misspent youth - proving it's never too late to plan for your retirement. At some point in our lives most of us find we've lost part - or all! - of our motivation to arrange our personal finances. Some of us never had the motivation in the first place. * Did you make the most of the property boom over its 14-year run? * Did you ride the share market as it hit record levels? * Is your superannuation simply plain vanilla? or are you taking advantage of the many options available? It can be disheartening to be a watcher rather than an active participant, but now there's a book about finding the motivation to invigorate your personal finances and investment planning. Peter Cerexhe shows you how to take stock of what you've accumulated and how to calculate what you need for peace of mind in the future. Case studies tell the stories of where others have found their motivation. There's also advice on avoiding financial issues taking a...
