He comes to Jesus to get healed, but his disciples try to stop him along with other children in need. Then Jesus beckons the children to come to him. Jesus heals the crippled boy, and he is made whole. The boy continues to follow and spy on the rest of Jesus life. He watches Jesus at the Garden of Gethsemane, distressed when he watches Jesus get arrested. So upset, his parents have to take him home to go to sleep. That does not stop the boy from wanting to know what will happen next. He is moved to tears as he watches Jesus get whipped and crucified. With hands up, he looks up to God, wondering why. Pictures reveal that Jesus dies for his sins as well as the sins for the rest of the world. The boy then learns that Jesus rose again, and he is happy. The boy falls in love and prays, thanking and asking Jesus into his heart. He then turns and forgives the children who bullied him. He explains to them in pictures that Jesus died for them, too. They also ask Jesus into their heart. Then they all look around the bushes and see Jesus ascending into heaven with a promise of his return and a promise of eternal life.
