iUniverse, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . They may forget what you said, but they will never forget how you made them feel. You go through life meeting people and not knowing what an impact they have had on you until you re faced with the fact that things are changing. Don t ever forget what people did for you and how much certain people made you smile because those are the ones you ll miss the most. -Jess Jake Davis, aka Jak, has lived a hard life and as that life is coming to an end Jak reflects back upon his life and leads you through a world of pain, happiness, and anger. That life would be the transformation from child to adult. Losing many of those close to him from such things as drunk driving, suicide and many other tragedies, Jak some how finds a way to go on with his life despite the pain he feels inside. At an age when everything is changing follow Jak and his story and see the side of a young adult you may never have seen before. That s because for Jak, nothing is simple nor is it easy to explain. Sometimes everything isn t what it may appear to be.
