Professor Hayward made application to the Forest Service November 26, 11106, for a co-operative forest study of the State, the expense of the work to be born jointly by the Service and the Station. It was agreed that the work should consist of a careful examination of existing forest conditions with the purpose of recommending practical measures for the management of the various classes of woodland, and of formulating a definite forest policy for the State. The Forest Service commenced the work the middle of March, 1907, and the field data, which form the basis of this report, were collected during the following two months by an officer of the Service. Summary of Conclusions. The conclusions and recommendations based upon this study may be summarized as follows:...
