Evelyn Goldberg is realizing that she isn't ready for an intimate relationship just yet, but she's lonely. And she's terribly missing her belated husband and their child. She's hoping to heal her heart, by making new friends in her recent Delaware dwelling. She hires a live-in housekeeper. Mora McKinney is a Spanish-speaking woman with her own heartaches. Shortly after Mora moves in, Evelyn adopts a dog. She gets into an emergency situation with the animal, while at the beach. It's here where she meets a teenage boy. Seth Sullivan is in town for the summer, visiting his Aunt. In the near future, he will be the catalyst for Evelyn owning a Bed and Breakfast in Pennsylvania. During this time, Seth discovers a family secret. Evelyn gives the boy her maternal advice and he and she make plans for him to help out with a party at the Inn. Evelyn is writing out her invitations and is torn whether or not to invite a former neighbor. She goes with her intuition, and meets the man that can change her future. Just when her life is going as smooth as a chocolate truffle, an accident will bring her happiness to a screeching halt! Once again, her inner strength will be put to the test!
