It s no secret that the more you open to your inner life, the more intuitive information, natural guidance and accurate psychic impressions become part of your daily life. The Journal is at once both an intuitive and methodical, systematic place designed to help you consciously tune in to your innate, powerful awareness and your intuitive self. And you ll find that the pages of the Journal offer an expansive, fresh place of focus and excitement for your intuitive self, psychic and spiritual development. Easily divided into four-page sections, spaces are provided to notice and record observations of your emotions and attitudes, your environment and surroundings, your unique intuitive process, and your specific questions and answers. And then you ll find a clear place to view, review and revisit your own natural inner vision and perceptions, as well as your unique personal path and details of the process of how you arrive at your guidance or answers! As you gently, consistently engage with this Intuitive Flow Journal,...
