I have seen it somewhere written that to a person whose age extends beyond the period of youth, a retrospect of his early connections and friendships cannot but suggest melancholy and mournful reflections. To clip from newspapers and magazines the following reports and sketches of what were at one time current events; to read, and then retouch with a loving hand some incident of an almost forgotten past, is to indulge in a retrospect of the brightest and best period of my life - the years passed in Halifax. And yet I find no suggestion of melancholy, and no trace of mournful reflection in the task I have assigned myself. The walls of this my smoking den and study are papered with pictures calculated to assist my memory - and stimulate...
