By John T O'Halloran

Chisel & Stone. Paperback. Condition: New. 414 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 1.0in. There are two books in The Children of Adam series, with a third to be written, they are: 1. The Second Conflict and 2. The Final Rite Back-story. In the beginning The King of Kings and Lord of Creation, brought with him across the universe a fearsome host of Angels, whose powers were raw and nave. They then carried out their kings will to create a perfect world called Near Earth. Nothing was beyond them; each had different and distinct powers so great, that together with the four Lords of the Elements, they could accomplish anything. They had children and gradually twelve tribes were formed who separated and occupied the four quarters of the compass, each quarter being ruled by one of four kings, collectively known as The Magii. Once they had finished what needed to be done, The Lords of Elements concealed themselves, relying on Hermes, one of the sons of the King of Kings, to call them if their presence was required to discharge their part of an ancient promise. This perfect world almost immediately disintegrated into chaos, because Hermes brother Satan, became jealous of...
