Tell-Tale Publishing Group, LLC, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Arthur Rhodes knows he s different. Severely OCD, he dreams of popularity and Ashley Green, a girl who won t even look at him. His older brother, Keith, was in the Army. He s currently at home taking out all his PTSD-induced rage on Arthur. Arthur s mother is rarely home. She donates all her time to veterans organizations. His father, an anally-retentive Major in the Marine Corps, is currently head of security at Ames Research Center. Between his OCD and his family life, Arthur s only friend is Emilio Luna who has Tourette Syndrome. Emilio s symptoms are twitching and inappropriate outbursts. Arthur barely notices his friend s idiosyncrasies. As a pair, they ve suffered torture, bullying and ostracizing through every level of school since Arthur s family moved to the Silicon Valley. When Arthur s military father forces him to go camping, Emilio accompanies him. A space pod crashes in the deep woods on Mt. Shasta and the two sixteen-year-old boys discover Tonigen Dweezil Emyris, a cryonically preserved young Nysian from the Cygnus system. They take the alien home and defrost him, and that s when their entire lives begin to change.
