Excerpt from Flowering Trees of the Orient, 1926 In America, the display in Washington D. C. is notable. The collection there was presented to our nation during President Taft administration by the City of Tokio and planted along the Rive Drive near the Basin, where it is Visited by every resident c Washington at least once during the Cherry Season. Man parks, especially the newer ones in the small cities, are featuring th Japanese Cherries, possibly because the management believes atter tion will be drawn to the project and more funds become availabl when something with a news value is planted I am told that th plan has worked well. In one city the Rotary Club took the matte in hand and raised the money as the park funds were low. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
