Excerpt from An Appeal From the Alumni of the University of Alabama: To the Legislature of the State, for an Equitable Adjustment of the Claim of Their Alma Mater Against the State of Alabama I feel that I am entitled to this indulgence on your part, Ist, Because of the difficulty, if not impossibility, of presenting in a connected and condensed form the facts and history of this claim, extending as it does through a period of seventy-five years, and scattered as it is through so many volumes. Zud, Because I am the representative of over two thousand intelligent, useful, and prominent citizens of the State, who entreat you to hear me for their cause. Grd, Because, as the law-makers of a great commonwealth, you should fully understand the nature of this claim, on account of the momentous results to the State, in the proper understanding and adjustment of the same. In my effort to give a true history of this claim, and to present the same intelligently and fairly, I have carefully examined and studied all the books of...
