Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Adventures in Thule: Three Stories for Boys Archie, my father is a hard-working man; and it is not easy now to make the farms pay, with the rents high and sheep not selling well at the market. My father has not his troubles to seek, as the minister says. And to think that these Frenchmen should be allowed to go and kill a sheep, just as they want it, when they are going by Farriskeir or Rua; that is what angers me. And me, too, said Archie Livingstone, though it is not my fathers sheep they kill. It angers me because they are. Frenchmen; yes, and thieves besides. But what can you do, Colin? They were still regarding the far islands. If my father would let me, McCalmont said I d go out and live on Farriskeir until all the French smacks had gone by to Iceland, If they knew any one was on Farriskeir or Rua, that would be enough. They would soon talk about it among themselves, and there would be no more...
