Definitely, a precondition for an investment decision is the trust of the investors in the ability of the company to sustainably generate returns and to stand its ground at the market over the long term. With regards to globalization in particular, the internationalization of markets and integration of different industries led to a growing information need of investors that currently presents the corporate communications with new challenges. Therefore the external corporate reporting has a special importance as investors and analysts claim reliable and relevant information to be taken as a basis for corporate valuation and price determination. 1.
