With Melanie gone-and Evelyn living many miles away from her father-there is no one to watch over Paddy. Evelyn does her best, but she can t be by his side every second. She hopes he ll find someone to love. When he meets Charlene, it looks like he may have found a passionate companion, but their love does much more than move Paddy s heart. His new relationship ignites a passion in his soul that inspires him to seek out his unfulfilled accomplishment of becoming a playwright. He s been through the gamut of prosperity and pain, he has much to write, and, most importantly, he knows how to laugh through his trouble. He s finally ready to share his wisdom with an audience. Despite difficulties, health problems, and his own impending mortality, Paddy is consumed by his goal to fulfill his lifelong dream.
