Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 157 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This Christian autobiography talks about the dream of a small boy to follow in the footsteps of his childhood role model to earn a full scholarship in college football. Everyday children are influenced by athletes in high school, college and professional sports. This book offers insight into the world of a high school and college student athlete. It shows that it is possible to make the right decisions along the way and encourages student athletes to become the role models this society desperately needs. When changes occur and adjustments need to be made, this books offers sound advice on transitioning from high school to college in pursuit of a bachelor s degree and playing college football. From getting redshirted or injured to having to transfer to another college, it explains the steps to take while continuing to persevere in the classroom and on the field. College is a time when many student athletes soul search to find that balance to juggle life s complex load involving serious questions about future aspirations. This spiritual journey addresses thought provoking questions involving Christianity that student athletes have been longing to have answered. It also talks about how to effectively play for Christ, while witnessing to others and giving all the glory to God. One day will come when every athlete will have to hang up their cleats and enter the real world. This book addresses making that transition and finding out what it is God wants to continue to do in your life.
