So begins the screwball one-act chamber opera about an emotionally abused housewife, and the extent she goes to change the situation life has dealt her. Not even the pianist is allowed to sit by and idly accompany Margaret s journey into self-empowerment. Is it a battle between the sexes? Certainly not. It s more like power, domination and the pure thrill of ordering others around. First premiered at DePauw University, Greencastle Indiana in 1987. Later performed by the New Jersey Concert Opera in 2004.
