Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO provided information on the Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Divisions (WHD) enforcement of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). GAO found that: (1) the full-time-equivalent staff years that WHD compliance officers spent on FLSA enforcement increased from 474 in fiscal year (FY) 1984 to 499 in FY 1986; (2) the number of FLSA compliance actions increased from 64,093 in FY 1984 to 72,617 in FY 1986, due to an increase in conciliation actions, rather than in investigations; (3) back wages due employees increased from 107 million in FY 1984 to 122 million in FY 1986, and the amount that employers agreed to pay increased from 78.5 million to 93 million; (4) most back wages due employees resulted from investigations rather than conciliations; (5) the number of FLSA complaints increased by 3,892 between FY 1984 and FY 1985, but decreased by 1,645 between FY 1985 and FY 1986; (6) Labor issued final implementing regulations covering state and local government employees; (7) Labor issued proposed regulations covering restricted home-worker industries to...

Comprehensive manual! It's this sort of excellent read through. We have read through and I am also certain that I will go to read through once more again later on. You won't sense monotony at any time of your time (that's what catalogs are for regarding in the event you question me).
