American Conversations: From Colonization through Reconstruction, Volume 1 (Paperback)

By James H. Merrell, Jerald E. Podair, Andrew Kersten

Pearson Education (US), United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Presents primary source readings in American history to help students identify with the nation's past. American Conversations is a two-volume anthology of original primary sources in United States history. It features texts by famous and obscure Americans, seeking to reflect the voices of Native Americans, African Americans, women, and workers out of the backwaters onto the historical mainstream by devoting attention to these forgotten Americans. At the same time, the text acquaints students with leading figures and core texts. This juxtaposition offers a richer understanding of American history. The people and texts presented will resonate powerfully with the contemporary American conversation. Whatever today's topic—race relations, the battle of the sexes, protest or piety, or unum vs. pluribus—readers will find its roots in these pages.
