Leicester Bay Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 250 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. WEMBLEY TEWKES ON THE EDGES OF TIME: IMPERFECTIONS ON THE EDGE Book One Did you ever have a recurring dream only to wake up one day and find it was NOT a dream Wembley is an average and very successful fourteen-year-old. Everything comes easily to Wembley: the good and the bad; but still not without some effort. Of Welsh origin himself he can trace his ancestry back to both the Picts and the Celts. Once enemies, this proud warrior blood is now combined and flowing through the veins of our 21st Century youth. His parents had left Wales in 1999 when he was a five to escape the heavy hand of the last strong British policy towards the region, and left behind them the body, but not the memory, of a second son lost in childbirth. They came to America where they settled near Portland, Maine. Through strange and fantastic adventures, completely unplanned or unexpected by Wembley or his family, he begins to sense that he may have a mystic and hidden connection to the magic and lore of his native land. His nemesis is Evie Griffith, who has a common and similar secret unknown to Wembley. She is different. She has some sort of power; power to hurt him -- emotionally. He can't explain it. She won't explain it. His friends and family don't understand it. No one can do anything about it. There is something about Wales that calls him back. Each encounter with these strange and unusual far away -- Wembley calls them DreamTravels -- will lead him closer to his ancient home; and to his destiny. From LEICESTER BAY BOOKS ABOUT THE SERIES: Isn't adolescence difficult enough to navigate through without being taken...
