Zoey Miller was a throw away child, no one wanted her. She is passed around from one home to the next. She ran away so many times that her social worker gets the courts to have Zoey placed in a mental hospital for testing. There she meets a girl named Debra Stone, who is three years older than she is. This same young girl will be the one who teaches Zoey the true meaning of the word family. As a teenage girl, Debra Stone idolized him, this movie star H. W. Edwards that was larger than life. Then, as a young woman she meets, courts, and married him just to find out he was nothing like she dreamed he would be. They tore each other up with their battle of wills. Even though they tried to save the marriage, it didnt work out. Finally, they agreed to stay apart, and not see each other, and for eight years they dont. He lives on the West Coast in L. A. she on the east coast in South Florida, and they share...
