Let's Color the History of Sicily: Thirteen Different Cultures in 5,000 Years (Paperback)

By Sally M Veillette

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Sicily: an island with a rich history. Introduce our children and grandchildren to Sicilian treasures from the moment in which they can hold a colored pencil in their little hands, and honor a past that contains all of the colors of life's rainbow. This coloring book contains drawings from each of the thirteen historical dominations that have formed today's Sicilian culture, and includes informative captions. Historically accurate, entertaining, even adults learn while they play with their children. The illustrations were drawn by a group of children during their summer vacation in Marina di Ragusa, under the invitation of the Associazione Hands-On Sicily, who encourages cross-cultural exchanges. A perfect gift for anyone who loves the island: -).
