Come Hell or High Water: A Handbook on Collective Process Gone Awry helps individuals navigate the world of egalitarian, directly democratic groups. From their experiences working with egalitarian and anarchist organizations, Delfina Vannucci and Richard Singer offer a street-level view of how social relationships and power work. Lessons are learned and hindsight is 2020, and Come Hell or High Water offers readers both in this little gem. Critical, humorous, and prophetic, this book is a must-read for those new to egalitarian groups as well as for the salty old vet that thinks shes got it all figured out. Its a tough world out there; its a world that doesnt prepare us for developing social relationships based on trust, caring, and solidarity as well as a healthy respect for differences.
