Flandrau: At the Monthly Council Meeting of the Minnesota Historical Society, in the State Capitol, St. Paul, Minn;;, Monday Evening, November 9, 1903 His published writings comprise a condensed history of Minnesota, published in; 1900, as a preface to an Encyclopedia of Biography of Minnesota, and later as a separate book; articles published in the magazines of the day; and many papers scattered through the publications of this Society. He was one of a board of six commissioners who prepared and published, by authority of the Legislature, the military history known as Minnesota in the Civil and Indians Wars, 1861-1865, for which he wrote the part pertaining to the Indian War. Most, if not all, of these writings were historical, biographical, or episodic in their nature. He rescued from oblivion interesting episodes of the early days, some Of which changed the course of events of some importance, as, for example, the unique if not creditable way in which the almost accomplished removal of the capitol to St. Peter was de feated, though he had no hand in it.
