Excerpt from Eliot Memorial: Sketches Historical and Biographical of the Eliot Church and Society, Boston The origin of this volume was as follows : -The four Deacons of the Eliot Church - Messrs. Timothy Smith, Alpine McLean, Frederick C. Russell, and Clarence T. Mooar - communicated a joint and earnest written request that I should prepare such a work. They stated that my long connection with the Church had made me acquainted with many members now deceased, and with many facts in our collective life known to no one else now living. Emphasis was given to a suggestion that there should be special freedom in recording items of autobiography. Much greater fullness pertains naturally to the period of my active pastorate, from 1842 to 1871. At the last mentioned date Rev. B. F. Hamilton, d. d. , became a valued colleague. Memoranda, regularly made at the time, aid these reminiscences. The book comes from the press on the eighty-eighth anniversary of my birth, and in the fifty-eighth year of my connection with the Eliot Church.
