Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Third Mile - A Journey into the Afterlife is a work of fiction that explores what may lie in the world beyond death. The novel follows its protagonist, Jackie Istinoff (surname derived from the Russian word istina meaning spiritual truth) through a series of life events, told in flashback form, many of which she relives while dying during an extreme heat wave that occurs late in the summer of 2027 in a world ravaged by accelerated climate change and overpopulation. At age 72, Jackie is reduced to living in an impoverished neighborhood after a lifetime of struggle with bipolar disorder and medical crises. The neighborhood is dangerous and depressing, scarred with derelict factories and pollution. It also matches the setting of a recurring nightmare, which, prophetically, has plagued her most of her life. While training for a 5K- three mile, hence the Third Mile , charity race that she feels mysteriously compelled to undertake, which turns into an allegorical footrace over nightmare terrain that results in Jackie suffering a fatal heart attack. The novel follows her through near-death altered states of consciousness, during which she experiences, among other visions, a reliving of another dream which she experienced on September 27th, 1970 at the age of fifteen. Non-recurring, unlike the nightmare, this dream contained a once-in-a-lifetime vision of a glorious afterlife of breathtaking landscapes and brilliant blue skies reaching towards infinity. This dream sustained Jackie throughout a troubled life, and she came to think of it as 927 . This dream comes true and Jackie enters paradise.The process of dying releases her from the desolate world of her nightmare, freeing her into the wondrous one of 927. The narrative follows her journey...
