Hopkins, of Illinois, in the Senate of the United States, January 11, 1907 Mr. President: In determining the question whether reed smoot is entitled to a seat in the Senate of the United States from the State of Utah, it is necessary, as it seems to me, to first learn what power, if any, the Senate of the United States has over the State of Utah in the selection of the men whom that State sends to this body to represent her in all matters of legislation. Can the Senate fix the qualifications of the Senators of any State in this Union? Can this body arbitrarily determine the eligibility of its members from the different States? Are there no constitutional or Other limitations upon the Senate in arriving at the eligibility of a United States Senator from Utah who presents his credentials here under the seal of the State which he is authorized to represent in this legislative assembly?
