In this children s story, Naomi and her family learn a lesson about faith and understanding when they believe in God s power to bring about miracles in a very difficult time for their family. Naomi s father must move to California to work, so the entire family is relocated. This means they must experience many new people, places, and circumstances. Naomi wants a fifth birthday party more than anything. She wants to be a princess with a dress and castle. However, her family is moving away over her the week she turns five, so she will have to wait to be a princess. To help her cope with moving, Naomi s mother reminds her about God and explains that they need to have faith in His plans for their family. God has a very special surprise in store for the little girl. This story teaches patience, trust, devotion, and thankfulness to children through a relatable story.
