It is God who reveals His plans for man through our dreams. The Bible says God speaks to us when we are awake, but because of the distractions of the day, we are not able to hear His voice. So when we are sleep God speaks to us through our dreams and reveals the purpose for our lives. Your purpose in life is directly connected to your God given dreams, and since God has given you the dream, He has also equipped you to accomplish it. You will never be happy in life until you are living out your dreams. Your dreams are very real and you must pursue them with every ounce of energy in you in order to make them a reality.
