Go, and sin no more, lest a worse thing happen, continued M Cartney, presently. I ll try and keep straight, but it ll be precious hard, I guess. It will be hard, said Walter. / know how hard it is to do ever so little right. But my father told me once--he s suck a good man is my father, Jim!--that it is only through struggles and battlings that we can get to the kingdom of heaven. Hold on, old fellow! and I m certain, with God s help, you ll beat the devil yet. If I do it ll take a good slice of eternity to thank the Lord, said Sandy Jim, lifting his cap from his shaggy hair, arid bowing his head reverently. It ll want a good haul to bring me through, for...
