Excerpt from History of the Congressional Cemetery: December 6, 1906; Presented by Mr. Burkett and Ordered to Be Printed With Illustrations; To Accompany Report on H. R. 5972 A great inconvenience has long been experienced by the citizens residing in the eastern portion of the city for want of a suitable place for a burying ground. It is well known that the one at the northeast boundary of the city, now ocen pied as such, is a low and watery situation and very unfit for a place of inter ment. To remedy this inconvenience, a square of ground west of the marine hospital, being square 1115, hath been purchased from the superintendent of the city for $200. This piece Of ground is thought equal to any that can be had in the city for that purpose. To raise the purchase money and a sum sufficient to inclose the square with a substantial post and rail fence, we, whose names are hereunto subscribed, do promise to pay such sums as are annexed to our names, respectively, under such conditions as are hereunto prefixed; that is to say.
