But tell him who thou wert, that in his turn, As some amends he may thy fame renew And the dark sanguine stream from the bark of the tree again follow d. Thinking of many things, the Nymphs of the wood I then reverenced; And father Mars, who presides over the fields of the Thracians, That they would render the sight propitious, and give a better omen. After that, with a still greater effort, I approach d a branch the third time, And down on my knees with the adverse earth I struggled. Shall I speak, or be silent? A lamentable groan from within The tumulus was heard, and a voice issued forth with these accents, Why dost thou, JSneas, thus tear me? Spare...
