Getty Trust Publications, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This title offers an insightful and revealing personal account of one man s consuming passion for collecting. In 1965, shortly after founding his namesake museum in Malibu, California, J. Paul Getty penned reminiscence about the romance and zest - the excitement, suspense, thrills, and triumphs - that make art collecting one of the most exhilarating and satisfying of all human endeavors . Newly republished, this book offers a fascinating portrait of an idiosyncratic and highly personal passion for art - and how his first serious forays into art collecting in the 1930s would turn into a love that would last for more than three decades and end with the foundation of one of the world s finest museums. The text, peppered with revealing anecdotes, encompasses paintings, antiquities, and decorative arts and furniture, with conversational asides discussing Getty s philosophy of collecting. This personal chronicle reads like an intriguing postcard from a vastly different - and increasingly distant - era.
