Origin and History of a Wonderfully Successful Non-Partisan Movement. The purpose of the Citizens Union movement is to provide that the business affairs of municipal corporations shall be conducted upon their own merits, uncontrolled by State and National politics. The New York State Constitution, adopted in 1894, provided that municipal elections should be held at times separate and distinct from State and National elections. Here was the opportunity to accomplish the Citizens Union purpose in the municipalities of New York State. THE UNIONS AIM PURELY LOCAL. In New York City, for more than a century, the local agency of the Democratic Party had been perverted into a mere instrumentality for private graft. It has maintained its strength on the one hand through the cohesive power of public plunder, and on the other, through appeals to loyal Democrats, demanding the fealty...
