Asafev Igor I Glebov Translated from the Russian by Alfred J. Swan Published for American Council of Learned Societies by J. W. Edwards, Publisher Ann Arbor, Michigan FOREWORD The Russian Translation Project of the American Council of Learned Societies was organized in 1944 with the aid of a subsidy from the Rockefeller Foundation. The aim of the Project is the translation into English of significant works in the field of the humanities and the social sciences which provide an insight into Russian life and thought. Since Russian history is a continuum, the volumes translated are of various dates and have been drawn from both the prerevolutionary and postrevolutionary periods, from writings published inside and outside of Russia, the choice depending solely on their value to the fundamental aim of the Project. Translations are presented in authentic and unabridged English versions of the original text. Only in this way, it is believed, can American readers be made aware of the traditions, concepts, and ideologies by...
