Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Neglected Educator: Johann Heinrich Alsted Johann Heinrich Alsted, a theologian of the Reformed Church, the author of a vast body of theological, philosophical, and pedagogical works, and the master who, in many directions, exerted a profound influence upon the famous educator Comenius, was born in 1588 at Herborn, in Nassau. His father, a minister and teacher, devoted himself to his education until at the age of 14 he was enrolled on the books of the gymnasium or padagogium of his native town. This was at the time a famous school, having more than 150 pupils. Its curriculum was devoted primarily to religious instruction and the study of the ancient languages, without neglecting arithmetic, music, and the mother tongue. Graduating as an accomplished Latinist, well versed also in philosophy and theology, Alsted proceeded upon one of those academic journeys (peregrinationes academicae) that were at the time regarded as an indispensable supplement to the education of a cultured scholar. Before returning home he had listened to the distinguished teachers of the day at Marburg, Frankfurt, Heidelberg,...
