The buildings are in good repair, but the arrangements for ventilation are not always satisfactory, and the accommodation is not sufficient. During the latter part of the year it was necessary to hold classes continually in the corridors--an arrangement which is open to many objections. The large hall has been fitted with curtains, so as to divide it at will into four classrooms, whereby the unavoidable noise and the tendencies to the distraction of the pupils attention, have been much diminished. The school is well furnished with the ordinary appliances for instruction. The tone of the...

Reviews

This book might be worth a read, and superior to other. Of course, it really is engage in, still an interesting and amazing literature. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Prof. Valentin Hane MD

Basically no words to describe. We have read through and i also am sure that i am going to going to read once more once again later on. You may like just how the article writer compose this publication.
