

The Age of Consent (Paperback)

By Peter Morris

Bloomsbury Publishing PLC, United Kingdom, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Condemned by the mother of Jamie Bulger and acclaimed by the critics - for tackling the subject of child killers - this is the controversial new play from the winner of the Sunday Times Playwriting Prize 2001 Few kids have a secret as chilling as Timmy s. Stephanie loves Raquel to death. Acutely topical, darkly satirical and brutally uncompromising - these two monologues explore the shattering of childhood innocence. The play opens up a moral minefield. Who can, or should, consent to what? Can anyone consent to something on the behalf of another? What power can anyone, a person or a community, have over the mind and life of another? Morris s play sends you out in a state of moral turbulence. (John Peter, Sunday Times) For once, the play at the eye of an Edinburgh storm is a good one - Guardian This 70-minute play would alone have been worth a trip to Edinburgh - Sunday Times If The Age of Consent had been written by the sainted Alan Bennett it would be acclaimed as a triumph - Daily Telegraph...
