

The Drive Home: A Tale of Bromance and Horror (Paperback)

By Sean Kelly

Emerald Inkwell, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. For the first time since he was fourteen, Benjamin Keller is unemployed, relatively happy and ready to pursue his new path as a writer. Ben embarks on an impromptu road trip to Washington to visit his ill father, ready to take advantage of the opportunity and write about his experiences along the way. Ben s impulsive-and quite often irritating-best friend, Taylor, quickly invites himself along, hoping for all the traditional road trip mischief to ensue. Unbeknownst to the traveling companions, a grisly trail of bodies begins to pile up, following them through the Pacific Northwest from Grants Pass to Spokane. The Drive Home is a dark and occasionally humorous tale fraught with love and lust, violence and heartbreak, foul language and family, following two best friends and an unfortunate series of events that will shake them to their very foundation. Sean Kelly, Author.
