

A Reason to Believe

By Major Leonard Mitchell

Shalako Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 276 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.6in. Marjorie Ann Green loved horses and rodeo more than life itself. She knew, if given the chance, she could out-ride most men. But when she turned nineteen, an injury from a nasty fall inside a rain-soaked arena threatened to take that away from her. Now, she needed a reason to believe she could not only compete in rodeo once again, but win the heart of the man she had fallen in love with. An enjoyable read that will hold your interest. I loved it! Dallas Review A compelling tale! I constantly wanted to know what was going to happen throughout the entire story. . . Major Mitchell certainly kept my interest. Melody Groves - Author We strongly support the efforts of the young lady in this story, and applaud Mr. Mitchell's telling of her story. Oakdale Saddle Club This item ships from multiple locations.
