Outskirts Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The breathtaking mystery of the Irish CLADDAGH unraveled! On a fire singed wall not so far away from the tragedy, a collage of photographs shaped the heartbreaking desperation of a city in search of missing love ones. A rescue recovery center is deluged with a cascade of hundreds of Irish CLADDAGH rings uncovered from the collapsed World Trade Center at Ground Zero. The legend of the CLADDAGH S origin entwines with romance of love tales, perilous adventures, mystery and royalty. A distinctively unique, timeless and honored treasure of Irish heritage that is no stranger to love, tragedy and triumph. FOR IT WAS ONCE UPON A TIME, a sigil painted on an exclusive white sail of the Fisher King Ship marked with a crown, a pair of hands clasping the escutcheon of Nassau, evident of the crest of the royal house to which Liam, the King of CLADDAGH belongs, was recreated into a great spherical gold brooch to adorn the velvet lavender cloak of his future queen: Rowena, a descendant of ancient Ireland s fiery crimson-haired goddess Macha, who wreaked a terrible powerful curse upon the northern kings of Ireland s bloodline. An Irish phenomenon: its famous adage of Let Love, Loyalty and Friendship Reign, still eloquently resonates to this day.
