Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Bayou Classic is a fictional tale describing the lives of a group of teens who are struggling to survive and avoid the traps that come along with living in the inner city. Derek, who s an honor student and a senior in high school has been working really hard to maintain his three point five grade average and work his part time job while preparing for graduation. With encouragement from his high school sweet heart Areille, and his loving and supportive mother Gweyn, Derek has up to this point managed to overcome the peer pressure being placed upon him by his street smart friends Bingo, Skeeter, Stepper, and Dozer- who all indulge in fast living and fast money by engaging in illegal activity. Like life, trouble will eventually find its way into the picture, and Derek is ultimately forced to make a life altering decision when his mother not only loses her job but also falls ill. With Derek s dad Byron having suffered a nervous break down years earlier, Derek is left with...
