

Around the World in Twenty-Five Years: A Memoir (Paperback)

By John Trimble

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is the story of Chief Master Sergeant John Trimble's extraordinary career in the U.S. Air Force. He served aboard Air Force One, as radio operator for the domestic travels and foreign state visits of three Presidents and other government officials, and had other airborne and land-based communications positions. Trimble's stories span three wars and encounters with various dignitaries and ordinary people he encountered in his twenty-five years crisscrossing the globe in service to his country. As the President's airborne communications specialist, he was the direct link between the President and the outside world. In this role, CMSgt. Trimble was privy to more top secret information than any other member of the crew of Air Force One. This book captures the drama of serving aboard the flying White House, such as the chapter covering the last flight of President John Kennedy and the first of President Lyndon Johnson, both on November 22, 1963. This chapter contains Trimble's dramatic verbatim radio transcript of communications between Air Force One and Administration officials both in Washington and elsewhere, including LBJ s...
