Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Story of Us in the Loving Image of the Father. The book CHEN EL offers a unique perspective about the Master plan of God, including the important roles that God has assigned to both the Jewish people and the nations. It is only when we learn about the great love that God has for all His children that we can resolve the conflicts between our different world-views, thus. Truly love God and one another. The surprising revelation that the book offers is as inspiring as the conclusion of the following story. A well-known Jewish story tells about a hunchback who, because he was a great rabbinic scholar in a Hasidic family, was hooked up to be married to a beautiful woman. But when she saw his deformity she refused to marry him. When he heard the news, he told the families, let me have just few minutes to talk to her. So they allowed the couple to be alone for a short time. When the two of them came out of the room, the families were astonished: suddenly she was happy to marry him. So a student said to him, Rebbe, what did you say to her that changed her mind? He said, I made her see the moment at which, forty days before we were both conceived, there was a Heavenly announcement that said, This man is to marry that woman. And at the same time there was an equally powerful announcement that said, but one of them is to be a hunchback. And she saw my soul say, Oh, my God, if one of us is to be a hunchback, I can't let it be...
