The message of our Bible is that the God of life that created the universe from the atom to the cosmos that we could hardly imagine and comprehend is always within the Temple of the Holy Spirit from her conception until it crumbles back to the earth where it came from. The original vision of God was to perpetually commune with His best loved creation, man. However, we opted to oppose the power that makes us alive instead of learning the ways of our creator. We learned to misuse our godliness. That misuse has become a habit seeded deeply in our subconscious, and has developed into an artificial self that is not able to figure out how to revert back to what our creator intended us to be. In the beginning God said let us make man in our image, after our likeness. He took the dust from the earth and breath life on it, and that dust became a being with a living soul. The Hebrew term used in the verse is pronounced neshama that could mean either breath or spirit. That...
